Illinois Bar Journal - Sponsored Content

Create interest for your product or service

A sponsored content page in the Illinois Bar Journal is an excellent way to present your products or brand to the 28,000 Illinois attorneys that read the magazine monthly. You may use up to 500 words to educate attorneys in your area of expertise. Whether you describe a product, or knowledge about something you feel would benefit lawyers, sponsored content is an excellent way to communicate your message.

Guidelines

The page should be a source of information for attorneys, not a commercial for your company. Of course, your company will be acknowledged on the page with your logo and company information, but in order to retain credibility the article itself should remain unbiased. This will help establish you, or your company, as a resource for our attorneys.

Deadlines

Your article draft is due the first of the month preceding the month of publication. For example, a page for the January issue would be due by the first of December.

Specs

- Article, not to exceed 500 words, sent as a Word document.
- Your company logo, sent as a jpg, eps, or tiff file.
- Company information, including a brief description of your company (not to exceed 50 words), address, phone number, and website.

Rates

If you advertise with ISBA in other areas additional discounts may apply.

1 issue = $3,303

6 issues = $2,973 per issue

3 issues = $3,138 per issue

Newsletter

Sponsored Content

Create interest for your product or service

A sponsored content page in one of our newsletters is an excellent way to present your products or brand to attorneys in the area of practice you would like to reach. You may use up to 500 words to educate attorneys in your area of expertise. Whether you describe a product, or knowledge about something you feel would benefit lawyers, sponsored content is an excellent way to communicate your message.

Guidelines

The page should be a source of information for attorneys, not a commercial for your company. Of course, your company will be acknowledged with your company information, but in order to retain credibility the article itself should remain unbiased. This will help establish you, or your company, as a resource for our attorneys.

Deadlines

Your article draft is due the 15th of the month preceding the month of publication. For example, a sponsored content page for the January issue would be due by the 15th of December.

Specs

- Article, not to exceed 500 words, sent as a Word document.
- Your company logo, sent as a jpg, eps, or tiff file for the PDF version of the newsletter.
- Company information, including a brief description of your company (not to exceed 50 words), address, phone number, and website.

Pertinent ISBA Publications Advertising Policies

PREAMBLE

ISBA's charter states objectives of the Association, including the injunction "to establish and maintain the honor, standards and dignity of the legal profession...to improve the prompt administration of justice... (and) to promote the general welfare of the members of the Association...." As such, ISBA has determined that publication of advertisements in ISBA publications may imply the endorsement, recommendation, support or approval of such products and services by the ISBA. This implication will be considered in determining whether potential advertising will be accepted or is misleading or deceptive to the readers of ISBA publications. In all matters relating to the interpretation of the following policies and their application to potential advertising, the decision of ISBA will be final and controlling.

1. All advertising is subject to ISBA approval. ISBA reserves the right to reject any advertising at any time and for any reason.
2. As a matter of policy, the following are not accepted:
 - (a) Advertising for products or services that are illegal or whose movement in interstate commerce is illegal.
 - (b) Advertising relating to contests, lotteries, or the offering of prizes based on chance, unless first cleared by the U.S. Postal Service.
 - (c) Advertising relating to alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, or drugs.
 - (d) Advertising by or on behalf of political candidates at any level, excluding ISBA offices. Candidates for ISBA office may advertise their candidacy in the Illinois Bar Journal.
 - (e) Advertising advocating positions on political or social issues.
 - (f) Advertising which may violate or may enable another to violate the Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility, the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct, or the Illinois Code of Judicial Conduct.
 - (g) Advertising which is on its face false and/or misleading to the "reasonable reader" of ISBA publications and/or advertising copy for which the advertiser cannot provide factual substantiation or legal authorization from the appropriate jurisdiction when requested and which therefore might be false, misleading and/or violative of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct, the Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility, or the Illinois Code of Judicial Conduct.
3. Advertising may not in subject matter, content, material, or design jeopardize the mailing status of the publication in which it appears. The publisher reserves the right to obtain an opinion from the U. S. Postal Service on this question.
4. Advertising which by its subject matter or content may imply or lead to an implication of ISBA endorsement, recommendation, support, or approval will be accepted if, as a condition of acceptance, it includes in the advertisement a disclaimer stating that the product or service is not endorsed, recommended, supported, or approved by ISBA.

5. No unpaid advertising space will be provided for public service or other advertising except:
 - (a) Advertising for products and services of the ISBA, or ISBA-generated advertising of Association-sponsored products or services, shall be published on a space available basis.
 - (b) Organizations affiliated with ISBA are entitled to a 25% discount on display advertising space.
6. Classified advertising may include the following matters, among others: Lawyer employment opportunities; employment wanted; referral of legal work; sale of used law books; sale of law office equipment or furnishings; and law office rental opportunities.
7. If an advertisement offers the sale of a product by mail order, ISBA reserves the right to examine the product a purchaser will receive, but ISBA is not obliged to do so. Examination of the product or publication of the advertisement does not constitute a guarantee or warranty of said product nor the endorsement, recommendation, support or approval of the product by ISBA.
8. ISBA reserves the right to request full or partial payment before publishing any advertisement and to cease publishing ordered advertisement when payment for previous advertising is more than 60 days overdue. The entity whose product and/or service is advertised is ultimately liable for the costs of such advertisements, even if such entity chooses to utilize the services of an independent advertising agency to place advertisements with ISBA.
9. Cancellation Policy: Advertisements scheduled for insertion may be cancelled if ISBA is notified in writing (or by fax) on or before the copy deadline date of scheduled publication. When an advertiser or its agency cancels all or part of a multiple insertion order or contract, the advertiser or its agency is responsible for payment of the rate differential resulting from such cancellation.
10. The advertiser agrees to pay on behalf of and indemnify the ISBA against any and all liability, loss, or expense (including attorney's fees) arising from claims for libel, unfair competition, unfair trade practice, infringement of trade names or patents, violation of rights of privacy, and infringement of copyrights and propriety rights resulting from the publication by the ISBA of the advertiser's advertisement.
11. The ISBA will not be liable for failure to furnish advertising space or to publish any advertisement due to strikes, labor disputes, government action, act of God, war, fire, breakdown of equipment, or any other circumstances beyond the ISBA's control.
