Presenting:

A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM September 9 – November 4, 2006

"Tragedy tomorrow, comedy tonight!" Very fast-paced, incredibly witty and horribly irreverent, Broadway's greatest farce and funniest musical is the perfect escape from life's troubles. Join crafty slave, Pseudolus, as he struggles to win the hand of a beautiful but slow-witted courtesan for his young master in exchange for long-awaited freedom. Combine Stephen Sondheim's hilarious songs with a raucous book by Larry Gelbart (creator of M*A*S*H) & Burt Shevelove, and you have a non-stop laugh fest that'll have you singing "Comedy tonight!" all the way home.

Starts September 1

One of the longest running shows in Chicago theater history! Join the villagers of the beautiful fictional village of Grapplin, County Sligo, Ireland as they tell tales, sing songs and mourn the passing of one of their own, Flanagan. You'll be transported to the Emerald Isle to grieve as only the Irish can. You can share tales of your own experiences and misadventures with dear old Flanagan, or simply enjoy the stories and songs of the locals as they recall life with "Himself." Once you have arrived in Grapplin, you'll pay your respects to the glowering Mother and to poor grieving friends and family as all try to decide the fate of the fabled Flanagan land.

Need a good belly laugh? This comedy club features local and national stand-up acts. Since 1989, this sister room of the legendary Zanies in downtown Chicago, has been making the western suburbs laugh with the same great talent as the original club. The club has featured the routines of nationally known comics like Pauley Shore, Bobcat Goldthwait and Gilbert Gottfried, along with some of the country's hottest new talents. Join us for hilarious stand-up comedy in Chicago's premier club, located just off Bourbon Street.

Tickets start at $21 per person. A 2 item minimum purchase does apply. Call the Box Office for tickets, 630.584.6342

Discounted rates for Noble Fool productions or Zanies acts available for groups of 10 or more. Please contact Maggie Cross, Manager of Theater Group Sales at 630.524.5071
